erved by a circle of the Stars. Harley Kenerson, an Averill street bird fancier, believes he has approximatd some of the egg records that have seen published by other poultry men in Barre and vicinity. During the month of December, eight pullets, which the poultry man has carefully nurtured since last spring, repuid the master's kindness by laying 144 eggs, or an average of 18 spiece. For a number of years Mr. Kenson has pinned his faith to the Buff Wyandotte as the champion producer of eggs and he believes that his judgment has been vindicated as everyone of the prize pullets is of that strain. As a reward for their December diligence Mr. Kenerson shipped his pullet pen down to the state show at the capital last week and had the satisfaction of seeing the birds bring home a prize.
